

Therapeutic Goods Act Guidelines

Due to requirements of the Therapeutic Goods Act (TGA) 1989 and Regulations, the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 and other relevant laws we are unable to comment on any medical or health related diagnosis or treatment options.

ALL SLIM LIVING ADMINS AND MENTORS MUST ADHERE TO THESE GUIDELINES. THERE ARE NO EXCEPTIONS TO THIS AS PROTOCOL KEEPS SLIM LIVING, YOU, YOUR BUSINESS AND YOUR CUSTOMERS PROTECTED.

The purpose of these requirements is to protect us as Social Marketers and the health of our customers. It is a requirement of the TGA that we must not:

- make any therapeutic claims relating to the healing of disease. (e.g. healing, curing, restorative etc.)
- comment on any disease, condition, surgery or the treatment of disease. (e.g. Cancer Diabetes etc.)
- use any medical terminology to make any claim, statement or implication that it is effective in all cases of any medical condition. (e.g. we cannot use the medical term “obesity” but we can use the term “weight loss”)
- be likely to lead to consumers self-diagnosing or inappropriately treating potentially serious diseases. (e.g. “I have stopped my depression medication because I feel so happy”)
- contain any claim, statement or implication that it is infallible, unfailing, magical, miraculous, or that it is a certain, guaranteed or sure cure. (e.g. “You WILL lose 10kg” is better said as “Lose up to 10kg”)
- be directed at children (must be 18 years or over)
- contain any claim, statement or implication that it is effective in all cases.
